CIN Legal Data Services Announces The Addition of New Client Features to CIN Online...

CIN Legal Data Service is pleased to announce the release of new application features to CIN Online, the company's web-based ordering platform. Available immediately to all clients, CIN Online now offers firms the ability to upload an unlimited number of documents to their clients' orders within CIN Online. This feature provides significant benefit by providing each attorney with a centralized location for document storage and long-term retention. All documents uploaded to CIN Online are stored directly on CIN Legal Data Services' industry-leading Storage Area Network whereby they are archived and stored by the company. This feature further provides attorneys with an easy means by which to share critical documents online with their clients.

CIN Online also now offers attorneys the ability to order asset products such as title reports and instant appraisals for multiple client properties all within the same order. This feature expands the ease of use for attorneys working with clients who maintain an above average number of real property assets. Finally, all active clients now have immediate access to the Spanish Language CLR with one click, a value add no cost feature that was well received by clients included in the product's initial testing phases.

Commenting on the release of the new features, Lee Midkiff, CIN Legal Data Services Chief Operating Officer, commented, "We are pleased to release additional features that further create office efficiencies and ease of use for our attorney clients. The document upload and storage feature particularly provides great benefit for attorneys looking for a safe, reliable off-site data storage location, as well as for those looking to make critical documents available online to their consumer clients."

CIN Legal Data Services Announces Spanish Version of Industry Leading Consumer Liability Report (CLR)...

CIN Legal Data Services is pleased to announce that its industry leading Consumer Liability Report (CLR) is now available in Spanish. Via CIN Online, the company's web-based application, bankruptcy professionals and consumers are now provided with an easy means by which to translate every CLR into Spanish with 1-click.

Commenting on the release of the Spanish Language Consumer Liability Report, Lee Midkiff, CIN Legal Data Service's Chief Operating Officer commented, "We are pleased to provide this functionality to the thousands of professionals using our services for bankruptcy due diligence. Adding Spanish language functionality to the CLR, coupled with our Spanish Language Consumer Education Brochures, demonstrates our commitment to providing easy to understand bankruptcy information to our attorney clients and the Spanish speaking consumers they serve."

CIN Legal Data Services F.A.Q. & Helpful Hints...

Question: How do I obtain access to the Spanish Language CLR?

Answer: To garner access to the Spanish Language, simply log into CIN Online at www.cinlegal.com. Within CIN Online click on the transaction number for the order you would like the Spanish Language CLR. Once within the Order Details, simply click the box next to the CLR and then Click Translate. A translated version of the CLR will be posted to the order within five (5) seconds.

Question: Why Is the New Document Posting Utility Important for my Firm?

Answer: By posting documents to a client's order within CIN Online, you enable the client to view the posted documents related to their bankruptcy using their CIN Online credentials. Each document uploaded to CIN Online is hosted on the company's leading-edge Storage Area Network. Replicated and backed-up offsite, this feature provides your firm with a no cost means of ensuring data recovery in the event you experience any type of data failure within your office network environment.

Question: How do I order Multiple Valuation Products for Client's Who Own More than One property?

Answer: CIN Online's ordering mechanism now supports the ability to order multiple asset valuation and title requests for different addresses and assets associated with a client. This feature is now built into the Create Order wizard utilized to order products previously.
